WHERE IS NEIL?

By Paul Peterson

barking@yellowad.co.uk

A MURDER inquiry has been launched following the disappearance of a father of two from east London.

Neil Buchel, 39, of Braintree Road, in Dagenham, has been missing since Thursday, March 13 and police inquiries have raised concerns about the day he was last seen.

Detectives said that Mr Buchel had been with a friend in Heath Park, Dagenham, and the pair had got involved in an argument with a group of men at about 3pm that day.

Police were called to the scene and a 41-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of public order offences. He was subsequently issued with a penalty notice for disorder.

Detective Chief Inspector Chris Jones, who is leading the police inquiry, said: "We're appealing for anyone who saw that earlier altercation or anyone who has information about may have happened to Neil to come forward and assist us with our enquiries."

Police confirmed that following the argument in the park, Mr Buchel and several other people returned to an address in Stansgate Road, which he frequently visited.

But investigators said that he has since made no contact with his friends or family including his estranged partner and two daughters, which is totally out of character.

Det Chief Insp Jones added: "We believe Neil has come to significant harm. It is highly unlikely he would not have contacted friends and family if he was still OK."

Detectives are urgently appealing for anyone one with information to call the incident room on 020 8345 3734 or contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

● Two 35-year-old men and a 41-year-old man were arrested on suspicion of murder last week. The three men have since been released on bail until the end of April.

Appeal to anglers after body part is found in lake

DETECTIVES are appealing to anglers and fishermen for information after a suspected body part was found in a lake in Dagenham on Monday.

Police were called to White Hart Lakes, off Chase Road, shortly after 6pm after a member of the public reported an item seen floating in the water.

The body part is believed to be a human leg although forensic analysis is ongoing.

Detectives investigating the disappearance of Mr Buchel, are aware of the find and have informed his family of this development.

Police said it was too early to confirm if the find is linked to the investigation.

Detective Chief Inspector Chris Jones, of the homicide and major crime command, has appealed to local anglers and fishermen for any information they might have about recent activity at the lakes.

He said: "I would like to ask anybody who has used the lakes over recent weeks whether they have noticed any unusual or suspicious activity.

"Have you seen anybody putting something into the water? Have you noticed anybody who you have not seen there before? Any information, no matter how trivial you may think it to be, could be crucial to establishing what happened and I would urge you to speak with my team."

Anyone who can help is asked to contact the incident room on 020 8345 3734 or if you wish to remain anonymous Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Be part of something amazing

Donna Maylen, Stephen Vaz and Karen Palamer at Wilkinson in Dagenham

Picture by Martin Dalton

Need a helping hand?

CHARITIES and community groups in Waltham Forest are being offered a helping hand.

Staff at Wilkinson stores in Barking and Dagenham, Redbridge and Waltham Forest are donating products to local projects through the company's Helping Hands scheme.

Steven Vaz, store manager at the Dagenham Heathway branch, said: "The Helping Hands scheme is all about supporting local projects and directly benefiting the lives of people who live and work close to our stores. We'd like to hear from anyone who's keen to make a difference in their community whether it's a school that needs arts and crafts supplies or a dogs home in need of extra food and treats, we want to help."

The Helping Hands scheme is not only offering to donate Wilkinson's products to groups and charities, but is also inviting them to make applications for cash grants.

The application forms can be collected in store and should be returned to the store's help desk. Successful applicants will be notified within three months of submission.

The participating Wilkinsons in east London are The Mall, in Dagenham Heathway, East Street, in Barking, Balfour Road, in Ilford, and Walthamstow High Street.

Jobs boost

HUNDREDS of new jobs and apprenticeships are set to come to the borough.

Barking and Dagenham Council and Crossrail Ltd have forged a partnership to help increase the number of job opportunities for local residents over the next two years.

If you are a skilled worker or labourer looking to find an opportunity call 020 8724 5059 or e-mail construction@lbdd.gov.uk

Fresh start

YOUNG offenders are turning over a new leaf thanks to a council run initiative.

They have been helping Barking and Dagenham Council give a number of community buildings a new lease of life and achieving Level 2 and Level 3 NVQs along the way.

The projects included transforming a kitchen area into an office at the Theresa Green Community Hall and helping to turn a rundown garage into a gym for local residents.

New nursery

A NEW nursery is set to open up at the Arden House Children's Centre this autumn.

The nursery, in Longbridge Road, Barking, will accommodate a total of 57 children which will include free places for eligible children aged two, three and four years old.

The building will undergo a major refurbishment, which is due to be complete by the end of the summer.

Loraine Hayward Will Sampson and Emily Vale at The Three Travellers pub in Dagenham
Picture by Martin Dalton

Pub named best in the borough

THE Three Travellers has been crowned as the Best Barking and Dagenham Pub of the Year.

A total of 159 votes poured in for the pub with an overwhelming number praising the venue for its excellent customer service, family friendly environment, first-rate food and great entertainment.

Landlord Will Sampson said: "I am really chuffed that the Three Travellers has been named as the best pub in the borough, you just cannot buy that kind of success. I'm also really pleased to hear that so many of the people who voted had so many nice things to say about the pub and our services."

Customer Martin Horlick said: "The pub has been a landmark in Dagenham for more years than I've been alive and it has always held its traditional appeal. Every walk of life is welcome here and staff go out of their way to please everyone. The food and entertainment are five-star quality."

The Pub of the Year competition was launched in January by Barking and Dagenham Council to recognise pubs for their outstanding contribution to the borough's heritage and community spirit.

Deputy council leader, councillor Rocky Gill, said: "We received an overwhelming response from residents and were delighted to see all of the good things people have to say about our local pubs.

"I would like to congratulate the Three Travellers for on winning the title of Pub of the Year 2014."

The Three Travellers, in Wood Lane, Dagenham, will now receive a special commemorative plaque.

The runners up were named as the Coopers Arms in High Road, Chadwell Heath, with 155 votes and The Barking Dog in Station Parade, Barking, which received a total of 95 votes in the contest.

Mark Davis who has escaped from police custody and remains on the run

Man escapes custody

POLICE are appealing for help to track down a man who escaped from police custody on Monday.

Mark Davis, 26, was arrested by Essex Police in connection with a burglary in Dagenham on Tuesday, February 25 and was taken into custody at Fresh Wharf, in Barking, on Saturday.

While in custody Davis claimed to be suffering from stomach pain and was taken to Newham Hospital as a precaution. As he left the hospital Davis escaped his police guard and fled the scene.

Police have confirmed that Davis, who is known to have links to Basildon, was not handcuffed.

They said Davis is not believed to be a danger to the community but urge the public to dial 999.

Anyone who knows the whereabouts of Mark Davis should contact Barking and Dagenham Police immediately by dialling 999 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

A police spokeswoman said the Directorate of Professional Standards has been informed and that a local investigation is taking place into the circumstances in which Davis fled from custody.

Ambulance car 24-hour doctors for east London

By Paul Peterson

barking@yellowad.co.uk

SPEEDY: Paramedic Louise Rosson and Dr Ben Clarke
Picture by MARK CLEVELAND

LIFE-SAVING doctors and paramedics will provide 24-hour emergency response in a new service across east London.

Ambulance cars will be used to transport medics with the equipment and training to carry out surgery at the roadside if necessary.

They will be called on for anyone who has suffered a cardiac arrest, been in a multi-vehicle pile-up, is trapped in a car or who has fallen from a height of more than 15 feet.

The cars, run by the Essex Air Ambulance Service, were unveiled at CEME Conference Centre, Rainham, on Wednesday.

The new rapid-response service will cover periods when the air ambulance is not operational, mainly at night. Dr Adam Chesters, of Essex and Herts Air Ambulance Trust, said: "Deploying a car-based team is an exciting evolution... allowing us to provide an advanced car even when the helicopter is not available."

Trust bosses said the response cars will carry full life-saving equipment and drugs – exactly like the helicopters – allowing them to continue to offer the 'most advanced emergency department level of care' at the scene. Unlike the helicopters, the cars are not weather-dependent, giving advanced care to patients whatever the weather or time of day, says the trust.

The difference between a regular land ambulance and the response cars is that a doctor would always be on board, as well as a paramedic team. The doctor will be able to administer effective painkillers as only doctors have a licence to give out heavy-duty medication.

Deputy clinical manager for the project Ben Myer said: "The process of car selection started more than a year ago and has involved an extensive trial period. The cars had to be safe, have storage space for medical equipment, security, comfort, responsiveness and handling."

"The charity purchased two Vauxhall Insignias fitted with blue lights and bespoke livery."

The 999 service will be given on a priority basis by staff at Broomfield call centre near Chelmsford, deciding whether or not to send the rapid-response car with the doctor on board instead of the traditional ambulance.

The cars could be rolled out to cover more evenings in the week. The trust said it had been a long-held goal to provide the same level of care as in daylight hours when the helicopters are operational.

AGE-OLD PROBLEM: Elderly drivers can be a danger on the roads as their skills diminish, but a road safety group has found that some are actually giving up their keys too soon

by Mike Torpey

A POLL shows 42 per cent of people are worried about an elderly relative driving but are unlikely to do anything about it.

Even so, some older drivers are giving up their keys too early, the Institute of Advanced Motorists (IAM) has found.

Road safety charity the IAM and survey company Vision Critical polled 1,297 people.

They discovered that while concern about elderly drivers is evident, acting on those worries is another issue.

And when elderly relatives are spoken to about their driving, it doesn't always go down well: of those who did this, nearly half of respondents – 47 per cent – were met with a negative reaction.

IAM chief executive Simon Best said: "Talking to an elderly relative about their driving is a difficult conversation to have."

"Driving is associated with independence, so giving up the car keys can be a very stressful process. This is especially true for drivers with dementia as they often underestimate the impact on their driving skills.

"Voluntary online and on-road driving assessments will provide an unbiased view and help everyone make the right decision at the right time. We are finding while there are some elderly drivers who should not be on the road, most get it right and as many as 15 per cent give up too early."

"But with ever-increasing numbers of elderly drivers, this is a growing mobility and road safety issue that won't go away. The Government needs to act now."

The IAM wants action like a Government plan for older drivers, widespread availability of voluntary on-road driving assessments, more car manufacturers considering older drivers in vehicle design and road designs that make it easier for older drivers to keep driving. There are now more than four million drivers over 70 years old, a figure that is set to increase to 5.8 million in 2032.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. THEY THINK IT'S ALL OVER... IT IS!

Orient

Leyton Orient 0 Bradford City 1
Sky Bet League One
By Rowland Lyons
at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient endured a bitter-sweet Saturday afternoon after losing again at home – but booked at least a play-off spot.

Former Orient striker – Aaron McLean – hit a first-half winner for the Bantams, to leave boss, Russell Slade, claiming: ‘I think the better team lost the football match today. But, as is often the case in this league – if you don’t do your jobs you get punished’.

After a frustrating midweek Oldham draw, Slade, rang the changes with Lloyd James and Elliot Omozusi benched. With loan keeper, Eldin Jakupovic recalled by Hull, Jamie Jones made a welcome return after four months out. John Lundstram – on loan from Everton – made his Orient debut.

Orient made a bright start and in the first minute, top scorer, David Mooney was inches away from netting with a glancing header and Kevin Lisbie was denied soon after by an Andrew Davies’ goal line clearance.

But, once again the O’s failure to score in their periods of domination cost them as former Orient striker – McLean – profited from slack marking to volley home Gary Jones’s 27th minute corner.

The east Londoners should have been level on 41 minutes, but Mathieu Baudry inexplicably kneed over a Jamie Ness free-kick from only six yards out.

On a day when things weren’t going the O’s way, a City defender clearly handled Dean Cox’s stoppage time cross, only for referee David Phillips to have whistled for half-time a split second beforehand, provoking vehement Orient protests.

Slade complained: ‘It’s a definite handball and according to our watch, he had blown early.’

A half-time tunnel incident resulted in assistant boss, Kevin Nugent being sent to the stands, together with City gaffer, Phil Parkinson.

Buoyed by their lead, Bradford never cracked after the break and whilst the O’s had wasted good chances before the interval, there was never going to be a repeat.

Only Shaun Batt, troubled a well-organized Bantams’ back four, but the sub lacked composure and his wild effort flew over the bar.

Indeed, Jamie Jones was the busier of the two keepers, doing well to block a couple of late Garry Thompson efforts.

O’s schemer, Dean Cox, added: ‘It’s disappointing – to be fair – as we had a good few chances. It just wasn’t our day and the worst thing is the goal we conceded.’

‘But, getting in the play-offs is an absolutely magnificent achievement from the group and today I think the fans respected that and were right behind us.’

After criticizing the fans after the midweek Oldham draw, Slade added: ‘I think the supporters were excellent – it’s just the thing they need and it kept our players performing’.

Slade concluded: ‘It has been absolutely excellent all season and the achievement so far has been absolutely monumental. As I keep saying, we have so much more to play for.’

■ Orient travel to Sheffield United, this Saturday (kick-off 3pm).

LEYTON ORIENT: Jamie Jones - Scott Cuthbert, Mathieu Baudry, Nathan Clarke (captain), Gary Sawyer - Moses Odubajo, Jamie Ness, John Lundstram (Lloyd James 70), Dean Cox - Kevin Lisbie (Chris Dagnall 79), David Mooney (Shaun Batt 70). Subs (not used): Jamie Jones (gk), Yohann Lasimant, Robbie Simpson.

BRADFORD CITY: Jon McLaughlin - Stephen Darby, Andrew Davies, Rory McArdle, Adam Drury (Carl McHugh 21) - Kyle Bennett, Matthew Dolan, Gary Jones (captain), Adam Reach - Jon Stead (Garry Thompson 75), Aaron McLean (Matthew Bates 88). Subs (not used): Jack Bentley (gk), Mark Yeates, Raffaele De Vita, Jack Stockill.

Valuable points for Beach Boys and Clarets

Non-league round up
by Brian Jeeves

CONCORD Rangers and Chelmsford City picked up important Skrill Conference South points at the weekend, with the Beach Boys leading the way. Goals from Lewis Taaffe and Gary Ogilvie earned Concord an impressive 2-0 win at Farnborough Town in front of a bumper 1,010 crowd, while another big 721 turnout at Melbourne Stadium saw Chelmsford City grab a vital point from a goalless draw with Havant & Waterlooville.

And the crowds turned out in the Ryman Premier where 1,731 saw East Thurrock United pinch a 1-1 draw at highflying Maidstone United. More than 400 saw Rio Bryan-Edwards and Jay Curran hit the net as Canvey Island secure a 2-0 win over Margate, and there was more than 300 at New Lodge, but spirits were dampened as Billericay Town went down 2-1 against Cray Wanderers.

A brace from George Purcell along with one from Tambeson Eyong gave AFC Hornchurch a 3-0 triumph at Wingate & Finchley while Grays Athletic crashed 3-1 at home against Hampton & Richmond Borough.

Plenty of goals in the Ryman North Division. Steven Carvell, Calvin Poku and Matthew Gulfer were on target as Barkingside swept aside Tibury by three goals to nil, while Romford did even better, sinking Redbridge by five without reply.

Maldon & Tiptree won an entertaining game with Needham Market 4-2 and Witham Town also hit four, beating Waltham Forest 4-1. A couple of goals from former Colchester United frontman Jamie Guy earned Heybridge Swifts a 2-0 win over Burnham Ramblers, but Thurrock went down by the odd goal in three at Waltham Abbey. Elsewhere, Brentwood Town and Wroxham fought out a goalless draw.

Great Wakering Rovers continued their relentless march towards the Essex Senior League title, Stansted became the Rovers latest victims at Burroughs Park, the home side running out 5-0 winners. But Rovers chief rivals kept up the pressure. Tower Hamlets recorded a 3-1 win over Hullbridge Sports while Enfield 1893 saw off Bowers & Pitsea 2-0.

Terry Martin and Greg Akpele were on target as impressive Basildon United won 2-1 at Barkingside, and it was the same outcome at Southchurch Park as visitors Greenhouse London saw off Southend Manor.

Haringey Borough won 2-0 against London APSA and Takeley edged an entertaining encounter with London Bari 3-2. Sporting Bengal United grabbed a 1-0 win over Clapton at the Old Spotted Dog and it was all square at Eton Manor who drew 1-1 with Sawbridgeworth Town.

Royals get the blues in U12s cup final defeat

Football

Buckhurst Hill (Royals) 3 Stanway Villa (Blues) 4
Essex Under 12s Cup Final.

By Robert Craven

SUB Gus Armin grabbed an extra time brace to guide Stanway Villa (Blues) to a thrilling 4-3 win over Buckhurst Hill (Royals) in the final of the Essex Under 12s Cup at Burnham Ramblers FC on Sunday. ‘After getting pegged back to 2-2, we had a bit of a change-around. We brought a new striker on and Gus was fantastic. He got the two goals, which he fully deserved. Each one of the lads had their own role to play to help us win today, and they did it,’ claimed delighted Villa manager Adam Mann.

‘Getting our hands on the trophy was the most important thing. Each one of the boys knew that, and they did a really professional job for an Under 12s team,’ he continued the team exorcised the demons of last season’s 5-4 Under 11s cup final defeat to Upminster Park Rovers.

This time it was Buckhurst Hill who were on the losing side, despite Joe Rowson giving them the lead and skipper Gus Lawrence netting twice.

Royals keeper Kaya Ali did well to gather at the feet of Adam Shaikly in the 17th minute, but opposite number Alex Horne had to save smartly to deny Liam Guymier before Luck almost put his team ahead in the 28th minute when a 25-yard strike grazed the right-hand post.

However, they finally edged ahead a minute later when Rowson steered the ball into the bottom right-hand corner at the back post.

Stanway’s response was swift. Gray saw an injury-time effort clutched by Ali, but he made no mistake in the opening minute of the second period when Shaikly’s fierce attempt was parried into his path.

Gray almost got a second five minutes later when he latched onto a header, but he slid the ball the wrong side of the upright and instead had to wait until the 42nd minute to put Stanway ahead.

Freddie O’Brien’s excellent cross-field pass found Shaikly, and he then delivered a controlled centre to pick out Gray at the back post.

Stanway almost extended their advantage when Gray had an effort blocked on the line by Kieren Huddart, but instead they were soon level as Huddart raced up to the opposite end to play a part in Buckhurst Hill’s equaliser. He passed for his captain, Lawrence, to force the ball beyond Horne and roll the ball into an unguarded net.

There were chances at both ends during a nervy final ten minutes. Horne grabbed hold of Luck’s strong shot at the second attempt to prevent Stan-way from slipping behind, whilst Ali produced a superb stop to thwart Armin.

In stoppage time, Harry Finch had a chance to win the trophy for Villa, but he chipped narrowly wide and an additional 20 minutes was needed to settle it.

Horne made a vital intervention within two minutes of the restart, producing an acrobatic save to deny Lawrence, and that allowed Stanway to edge in front when Armin latched onto a long ball down the right-hand side and, at the end of an outstanding solo run, fired the ball into the net via the upright.

Three minutes later, Armin was celebrating again. From a Buckhurst Hill throw-in, deep in the Stanway half, the Colchester & District Youth League outfit swept the ball clear for their super-sub, who sprinted away before guiding the ball into the bottom right-hand corner.

There was still time for some anxiety in the Stanway camp as Lawrence’s 73rd minute free-kick looped over the wall to make it 4-3, but Villa held on.

Buckhurst Hill (Royals): Kaya Ali, Oliver Luck, Oscar Wicks, Joe Williams, Joe Steed, Joe Rowson, Jamie Prime, Gus Lawrence, Kieren Huddart. Subs (repeated): Edward Cuttmore, Liam Guymier, Oliver Smith.
Stanway Villa (Blues): Alex Horne, Finn O’Reilly, Max Copeland, Matthew Woodridge, Ben Mann, Adam Shaikly, Freddie O’Brien, Max Gray, Hayden Dutch. Subs (repeated): Harry Finch, Matthew Gooday, Gus Armin.

Romford run intact with demolition of Redbridge

Football

Romford 5 Redbridge 0
 ROMFORD extended their amazing run of straight wins to seven with this comprehensive drubbing of Redbridge.

Both teams started brightly, and in the fifth minute a looping header from a Redbridge forward came off the Boro crossbar, but that was as good as it got for the visitors.

A minute later Daniel Jones had a shot well saved after picking up a cross from Nick Reynolds and from then on the home team took command.

In the 20th minute Jones was put through and beat the last two defenders on the edge of the box, but his final touch was too heavy. However, Tom Richardson was following up and cleverly poked the ball between two defenders who had got back on the goal line to open the scoring for Boro.

Five minutes later Jamie Dicks powered up the left and drove a fierce cross shot just past the far post and then in the 31st minute Boro won a corner on the right after a sustained attack. George Woodward’s inswinging kick was perfectly placed for Reynolds who headed home and Boro were able to go in at the interval good value for their 2-0 lead.

Any thoughts Redbridge had of getting back into the game were dealt a blow after only two minutes of the second half when a Boro attack down the left gave space for Reynolds to cross for Abs Seymour to head in.

Romford continued to press with further efforts from Jones and Dicks whistling past the post, before in the 67th minute some neat interpassing found Seymour on the penalty spot.

He held up the ball for what seemed like an age before slipping the ball to Richardson who neatly placed it into the top corner.

Six minutes later Romford put the game beyond Redbridge as Richardson dribbled down the left wing beating two defenders before cutting back and playing the ball across the edge of the box for Jones to get the goal his performance deserved.
